

What is it ?

It is a notebook containing six vouchers valued at 10 CHF each and valid for many different cultural places such as theatres, concerts, museums, cinemas, etc. (List on the website, as shown below). These discounts are offered by the "Département de la culture et du sport de la Ville de Genève" and the partner municipalities, which aim to facilitate an access to the culture to all of its inhabitants.

Whom is it addressed to ?

The "chéquier culture" is offered to anyone who :

- Is over 21 years old and under 64
- Is not a student
- Obtains a subvention type A, B or 100% provided by the Health Insurance Service (service de l'assurance maladie)
- Lives in the City of Geneva or in any of its partners municipalities (as listed on the website).

Where to obtain it ?

You can get the "chéquier culture" for free by presenting the certificate of subvention type A, B or 100% provided by the Health Insurance Service (service de l'assurance maladie), and an identity card (or a copy).

If you are living in the City of Geneva, you can get the "chéquier culture" à la Maison des Arts du Grütli, rue Général-Dufour 16, open from Monday to Friday from 10 am to 6 pm and on Saturdays from 10 am to 5 pm.

If you are living in one of the partner municipalities, you can get it at the municipality town hall.

Important :

The "chéquier culture" is a personal document provided to the user individually. You cannot give it to another person but you can invite a companion. The discount will be granted to that person too.

There are lots of different cultural activities in Geneva. Enjoy these vouchers and discover those activities.
